

Broadband over power lines (BPL) has been proven to cause much interference to radio services operating in the HF and lower VHF frequency ranges. I strongly suggest that you dismiss this proposal, as it would make aeronautical, amateur radio, maritime, military, etc., communications difficult if not impossible.